

THE AQUILA

1 9 6 5

It slipped.

Mary has her fingers in something again.

... and now for a few short announcements.

Attica's National Machinery Award winners.

What's so funny?

CANDID SHOTS

The Eagle Snoops.

Pow! Right in the chin.

Oh, my gosh!!!!

They play by ear.

Do not disturb.

"Hike!?"

Gene S.

Dick H.

... so ambitious.

Carol S.

"Who says all I do is eat and sleep?"

Jayne C.

"I've
nothing else to do but look busy."

Milton L.

"Ala! Ala!"

They could have danced all night.

Happy birthday Larry L.

Cutie Norm S.

Robert M.

"Smile for
the camera man, Susie
H."

They're in paradise.

The latest fashions from Paris.

"'Wanna' fight?"

The poor cat.

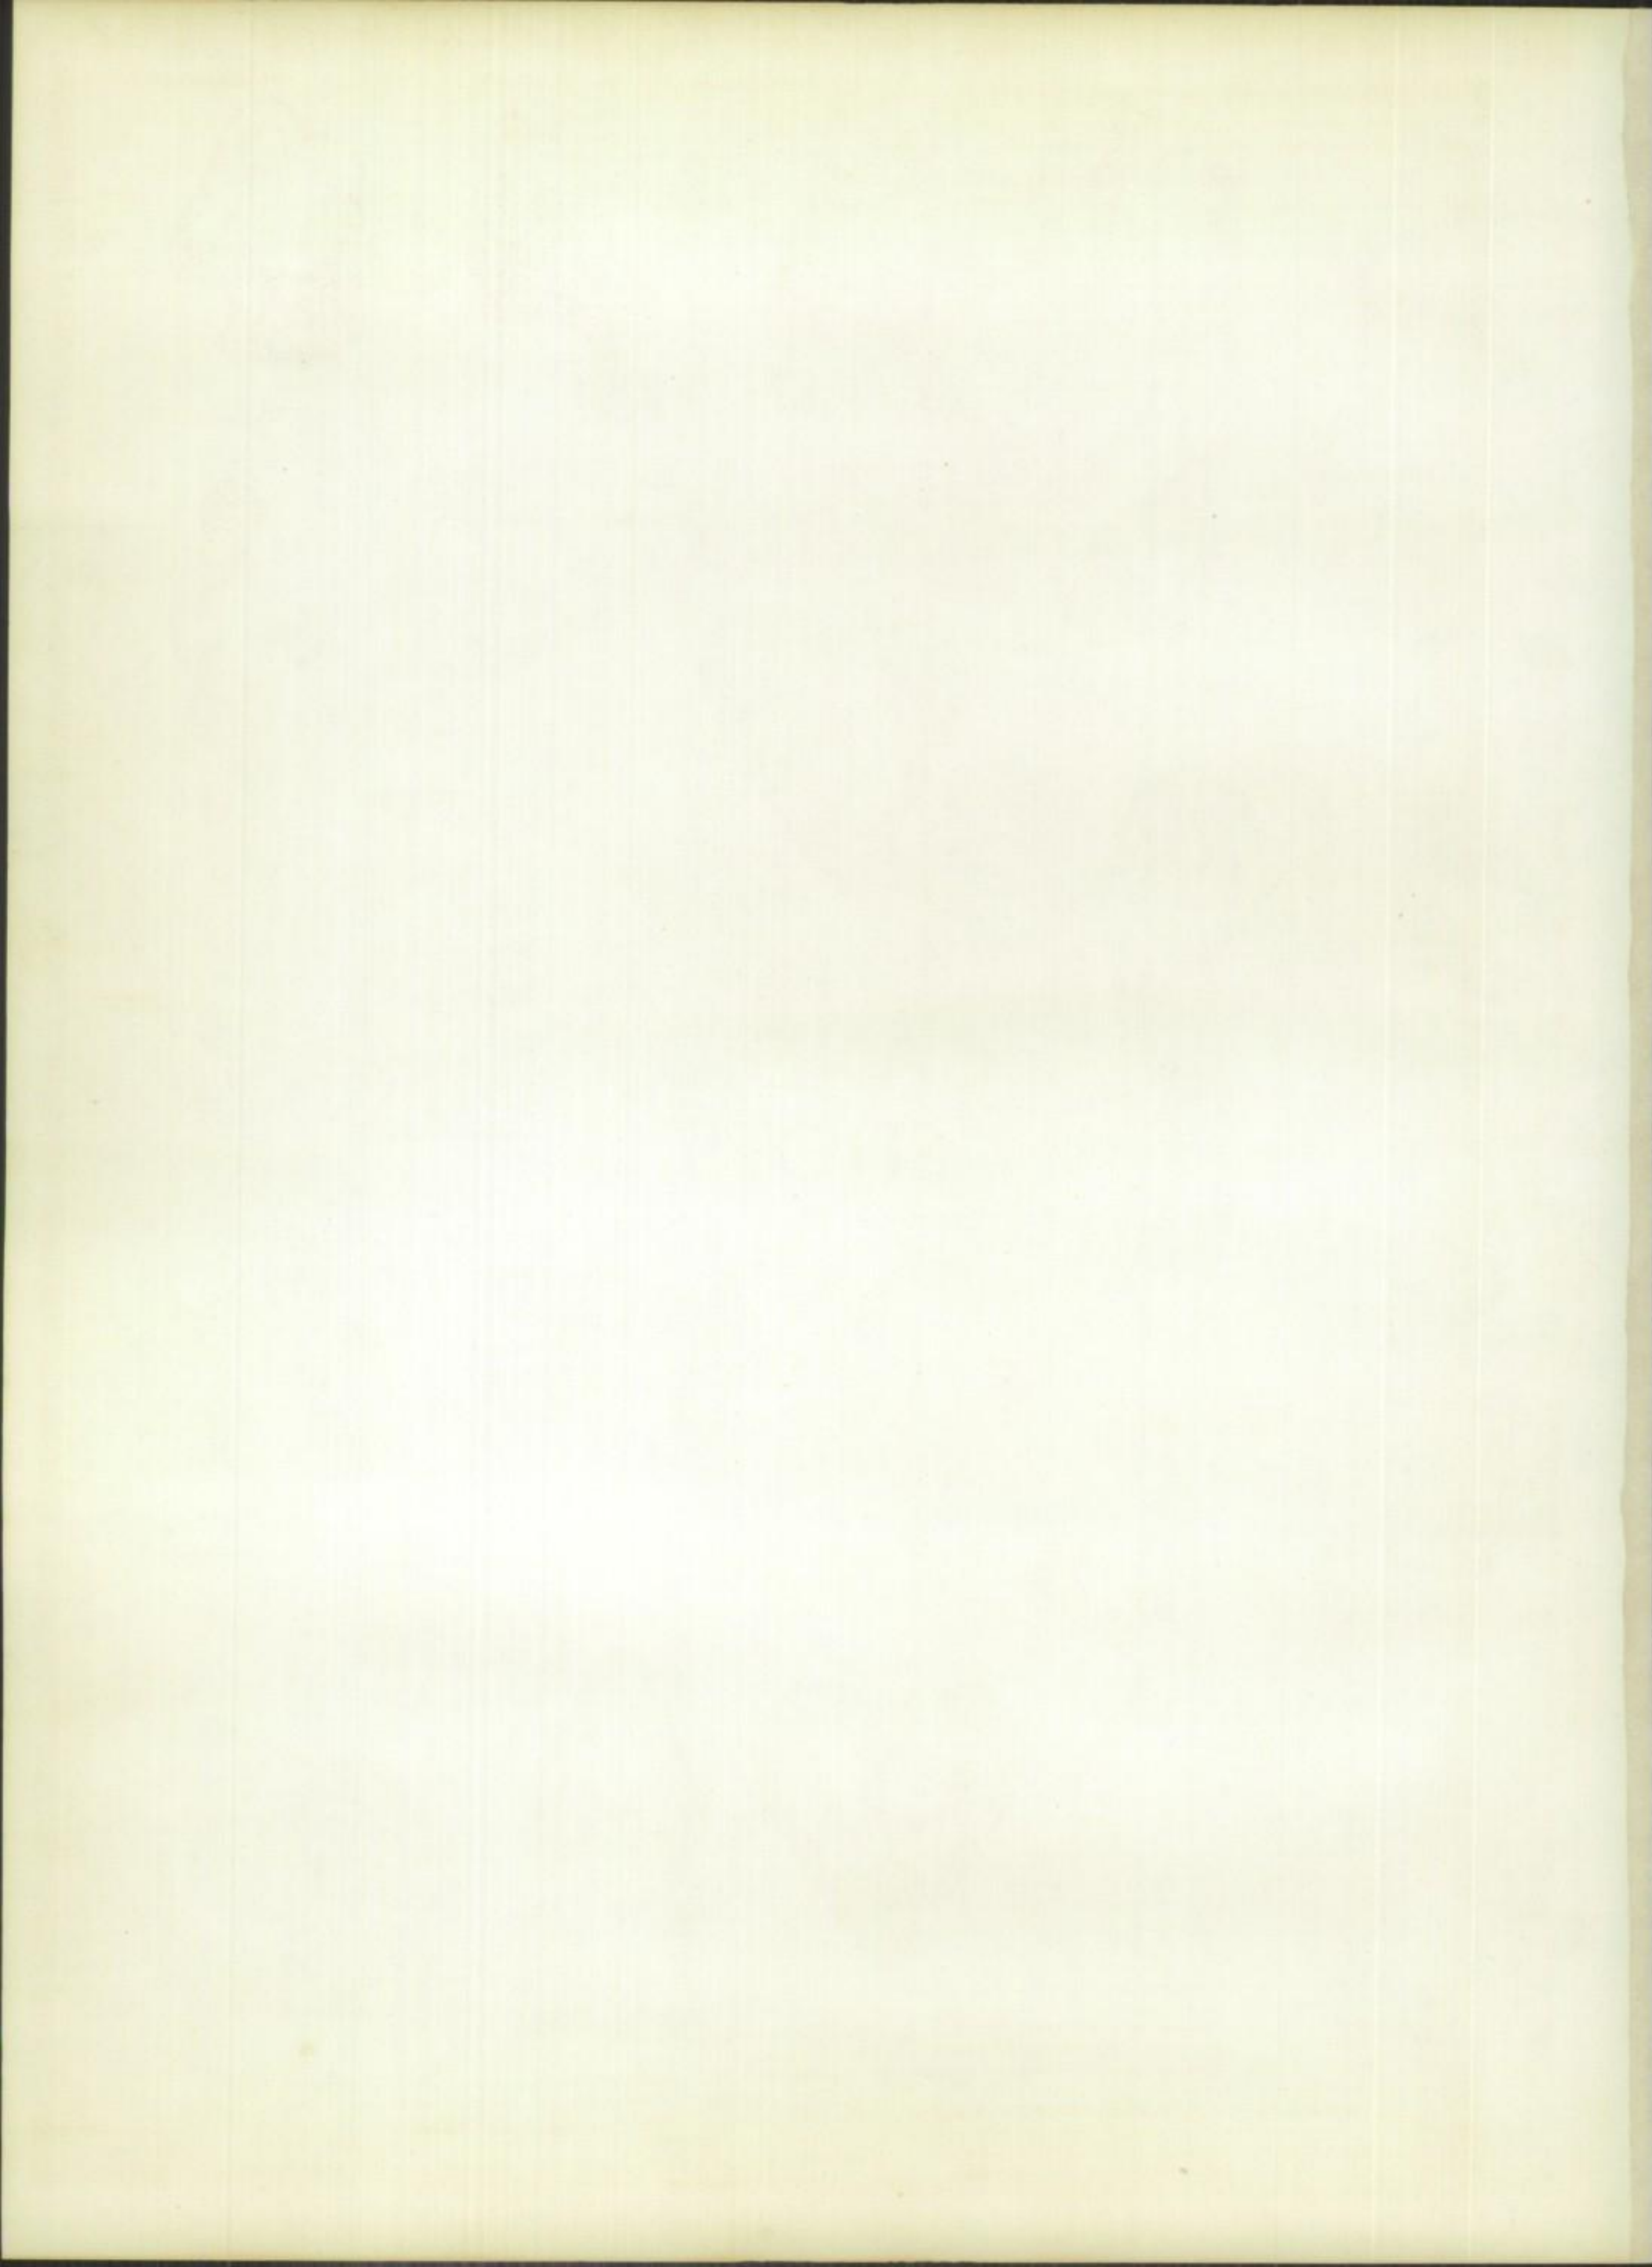

"Not so close. I can
smell the onions you
had for supper
already."

A tisket a tasket . . .

"Peek-a-boo!"

THE CLASS OF '65 OF ATTICA HIGH SCHOOL PRESENTS:

THE AQUILA

DEDICATION

The Class of 1965 dedicates this edition of the Aquila to a person who is a true friend, a leader, and an outstanding teacher. He started his Attica teaching experience seven years ago by teaching some of us in the sixth grade. As we advanced, so did he and we met again as students and teacher in the eighth grade.

He has supplied us with many valuable ideas for the dances we sponsored and other activities. He has always been more than willing to give his time and effort so that our class could be successful in academic achievements and extracurricular activities. He has always been willing to discuss a student's problems with him, and he holds a keen interest in everyone he meets.

He has directed both our junior and senior class plays, another of his many talents. He is the elementary principal and a junior high teacher.

To this true friend and man of many talents, we, the Class of 1965, dedicate this 1965 Aquila to Mr. Richard Swartzmiller.

CONTEST ONE-ACT PLAY

SUNDAY COSTS FIVE PESOS
Directed by Mrs. DeMott

CAST: Roxanne Funkhouser--Celestina
Mary Ayres--Tonia
Barbara Wurm--Salome

Carol Miller--Berta
Rodnie Oldham--Fidel
Patricia Johnson--Student Director

"Sunday Costs Five Pesos" is a hilarious comedy of small town Mexican folk. The author tells us it is based on an old law that is still enforced in many of the small town villages of the Republic. No one knows the reason for its existence but its phrasing goes straight to the point: "A woman who starts a fight on Sunday must pay a fine of five pesos." Since Sunday alone is stressed, the result is that what fighting is done is generally held over for weekdays. Berta suspects her lover, Fidel, of flirting with Celestina. Fidel tries to explain but she sends him away grieving. She soon begins to weaken, however, and is overcome with regret. Her friends, Salome and Tonia, make-up a story that Berta has fallen in the well and Tonia hurries after Fidel to break the news to him. He comes flying back to the scene and they insinuate that Berta is in very bad condition indeed. They send Fidel off to burn a candle in the church to atone for his getting angry with his sweetheart. Celestine appears on the scene anxious to have it out with Berta for calling her names. It being Sunday, they are hesitant about fighting on account of the fine, so they engage in a guessing contest. Celestina catches Salome cheating and the contest winds up with her sitting on top of Salome after a fierce fight. When Berta is alone, Fidel comes back and a reconciliation is brought about and marriage is in sight.

... and now for a few short announcements.

Attica's National Machinery Award winners.

What's so funny?

CANDID SHOTS

The Eagle Snoops.

Pow! Right in the chin.

Oh, my gosh!!!!

They play by ear.

Do not disturb.

"Hike!?"

Gene S.

Dick H.

... so ambitious.

Carol S.

"Who says all I do is
eat and sleep?"

They could have danced all night.

Jayne C.

"I've
nothing
else to do but
busy."

Milton L.

"Ala! Ala!"

CANDID SHOTS

Happy birth-
day Larry L.

Cutie Norm S.

Robert M.

"Smile for

man, Susie
H."

They're in paradise.

The latest
fashions from Paris.

"'Wanna' fight?"

The poor cat.

"Not so close. I can
smell the onions you
had for supper
already."

A tisket a tasket . . .

"Peek-a-boo!"
